I represent the respondent and certainly have no objection to a continuance under these circumstances.

Thank you,
George

This is to confirm my telephone call to you this wherein I requested a continuance on the Oral Argument on the above referenced matter. I have been dealing with the flu for over two weeks which I thought disappeared but it has been a continuance of congestion, coughing fever, etc. which had me out over the weekend and yesterday. I am going back to the doctor today. I apologize to the Court for this inconvenience. I request this matter be continued to the next term.

Yours very truly,

James Randall Davis
