

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

David Stephenson Boyd II, Petitioner,

v.

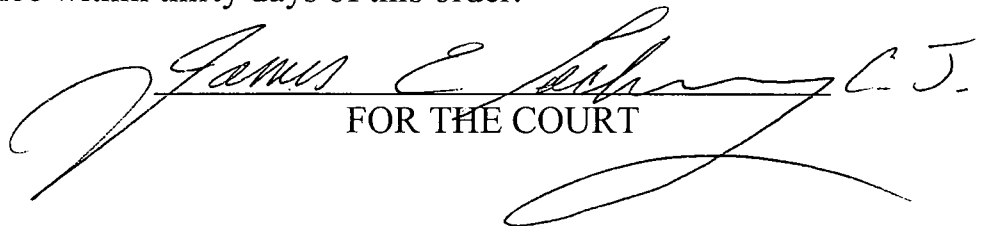

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2016-002560

ORDER

Petitioner has filed a motion to relieve counsel. The Chief Appellate Defender has filed a response, indicating he does not oppose the motion and he will reassign the case to another appellate defender if the motion is granted. The State did not file a return.

After careful consideration, the motion is granted. Newly assigned counsel shall file a notice of appearance within thirty days of this order.
