

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Timothy L. Marsh, 145874, Appellant,

v.

South Carolina Department of Probation, Parole &
Pardon Services, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2017-002079

---

ORDER

Appellant has filed a motion to amend his designation of matter, an amended designation of matter that includes only a list of issues to be reviewed on appeal, and a motion for an extension of time to file an amended designation of matter and cure deficiencies. First, this court notes a designation of matter should be a list of the items Appellant wishes to be included in the record on appeal and should not be a restatement of the issues on appeal. Second, this court notes it will take no further action on the currently pending motion to amend the designation of matter or motion for an extension of time. Finally, within thirty days of the date of this order, if Appellant wishes to amend his designation of matter, Appellant shall file a new motion to amend his designation of matter along with a copy of the amended designation of matter. This appeal will be held in abeyance for thirty days from the date of this order in order to allow Appellant to file the new motion.
