Re: Jacqueline Buie v. Walmart
Appellate Case No. 2016-000982

Dear Ms. Buie:

The Court received your motion to recall remittitur. However, our records reflect you are represented by counsel. See Rule 264, SCACR (providing an attorney of record may not withdraw from representation without written order of the appellate court). Accordingly, we are returning your filings to you. See Miller v. State, 388 S.C. 347, 347, 697 S.E.2d 527, 527 (2010) ("Since there is no right to 'hybrid representation' that is partially pro se and partially by counsel, substantive documents, with the exception of motions to relieve counsel, filed pro se by a person represented by counsel are not to be accepted unless submitted by counsel.").

Very truly yours,
