RE: JAMES R. ROSE vs. STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
CASE NO.: 2015-CP-10-3796

MAR 22 2018

S.G. SUPREME COURT

Dear Honorable Daniel E. Shearouse:

I was appointed assistant appellate defender Susan B. Hockett, esq. of the South Carolina Commission on Indigent Defense to assist me in a direct appeal in 2014. I asked counsel to challenge two specific issues that were preserved for appeal in which counsel refused to do so. In a PCR application/hearing, I accused appellate counsel of being ineffective for failing to raise issues on direct appeal. I am currently petitioning the South Carolina Supreme Court for a writ of certiorari and was appointed Chief Appellate Defendant Robert M. Dudek, esq. of the South Carolina Commission on Indigent Defense. Being I have a pending allegation upon Susan B. Hockett, esq., assistance from Robert M. Dudek, esq. would prejudice me and create a conflict of interest. It may even engage in unprofessional conduct. I ask that you discharge Robert M. Dudek, esq., for the reasons stated, in accordance with the Rules of Professional Conduct Rule 1.16(a)(3), RPC Rule 401, SCACR, and pray the Honorable Clerk appoint pro bono services, so that I may continue to perfect ~~my~~ my appeal.

March 20, 2018.

McCormick, South Carolina.

Respectfully submitted,
