Declaration

Gregory Pencille, now deposes and states;

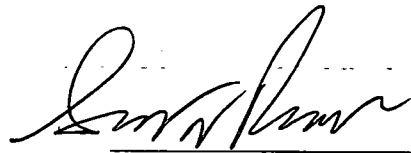

“Memorandum

I am the appellant in this case. Appellate case #2017-001725

I am in receipt of the appellate courts letter dated October 4th, 2017. (attached) which I received from the prison mailroom October 9th, 2017. The filing fee must be submitted by an SCDC form that I am waiting on headquarters to return to me. The respondent in this case is delaying my filing by improperly handling paperwork necessary to submit filing fee timely. As I am owned by the state I am at the whim of their corruption. Also, this action is against my captors making it more likely that they will hinder my actions to comply with this court. Once I receive the necessary paperwork from SCDC then I will file the fee.

In support of my ^{claim} ~~claim~~ I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

Dated: October, 10th, 2017.
