Stephen G. Brock v. Town of Mount Pleasant
Appellate Case No. 2018-000332

Dear Ms. Allen:

I regret my misreading of instructions regarding notification of the result of my request for transcript, however, I did order the transcript on March 5, 2018 directly from the court reporter. The request was sent via first class, USPS addressed to Amanda K. Heffenden at the address provided at the SC Courts site. I did not retain my final version of the request, but my draft notes include the case caption, date, place, and time of the hearing and identity the presiding judge which were included. My contact information was also provided.

It was my intention to inform the court of the absence of response from the court reporter at the conclusion of what I believed was a two week window for response which was Monday. As instructed, I have enclosed a motion requesting permission to order the transcript outside the filing deadline of Rule 207.

At the same time, I am also advising the Court of Administration of the non-delivery of the transcript. I was unsure whether to send the notification of the absence of transcript but it seemed under the circumstances it might prove useful in speeding things along.

Sincerely,

Stephen G. Brock
Appellant, pro se
