RE: Paul Shuler v SC Dept. of Corrections
Appellate Case no. 2018-000404

Dear Deputy Clerk Allen:

on March 16 2018 I received your correspondence dated March 13, 2018 advising of the required filing fee and changing/amending the title of the above referenced.

I am pursuing this matter pro se and I seek this courts permission to proceed in forma pauperis, as I am an indigent inmate.

I have filed for a financial accounting statement to be completed by the Financial Accounting Branch at the SCDC Headquarters verifying my financial status and capabilities.

I have been informed by the Allendale Correctional Inst. mailroom designee this process generally takes two (2) to three (3) weeks for their completion at Headquarters and return to me.

I am respectfully requesting that this court will grant an extension of time for this information to be received so that I may file this information with the courts in support of my request to proceed in forma pauperis in this matter.

Thank you for any consideration the court may extend in this matter.

Sincerely

Paul Shuler #369640
pro se Appellant
