v.

State of South Carolina

Appellate case No: 2017-002255

I am writing to respectfully ask this court for more time to be granted to me so that I may complete my pro se response. (Houston v. Lack) mailbox rule. The letter I received indicating I had (45) days to file my response was given to me on March 12, 2018, taking four days off my response time. Also Lee Correctional Institution is constantly locked down on and off in my assigned housing unit, and upon my arrival and even since then I have lost several more days due to my dorm being on lock down. I had to wait until I was added to the official outcount roster for pending cases and deadlines before I could gain access to the law library to do research on my case and figure out how to do a pro se response the proper way, losing more time on top of the days I had already lost. I am writing this court to ask if more time can be granted so that I may complete my pro se response before I submit it to the court.

Thanking you in advance for your time and effort in this manner,

Keylan D. McClintock #366251
