THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
In the Court of Appeals

APPEAL FROM FLORENCE COUNTY
Court of Common Pleas

The Honorable Thomas A. Russo

Trial Case No. 2016-CP-21-02533
Appellate Case No. 2017-000746

RECEIVED

APR 13 2018

SC Court of Appeals

Edward Spears.....Appellant,

v.

R&R Cleaning Services and Natalie Harris.....Respondents.

MOTION TO DISMISS

The Respondents, through their undersigned attorney, hereby move the South Carolina Court of Appeals to dismiss the appeal pending in this case. This motion is made pursuant to Rules 209, 210 and 211, SCACR. The Respondents further crave reference to the Order of this court filed March 6, 2018.

MEMORANDUM AND CITATION OF AUTHORITIES

On November 21, 2017, counsel for the Respondents sent a letter to the court containing Respondents' Initial Brief and Designation of Matter to be Included in the Record on Appeal as well as a Proof of Service reflecting service by mail of those documents on the Appellant. This was received by the court and clocked in on November 22, 2017.

On December 29, 2017, by hand-delivery, counsel for the Respondents received a purported Record on Appeal from the Appellant. On January 8, 2018, counsel for the Respondents filed a Motion to Dismiss or in the Alternative Motion to Order Appellant to file a Proper Record on Appeal; and Motion for Extension of Time to file final briefs. This was received by the court and clocked in on January 9, 2018.

On March 6, 2018, this court, by the Order of Chief Judge James E. Lockemy, filed an Order which compelled the Appellant to serve a corrected Record on Appeal and a Proof of Service for the corrected Record on Appeal within thirty days of the date of the Order.

On April 6, 2018, counsel for the Respondents received, by mail, an envelope with a postmark of April 4, 2018 which contained photocopies of pages 2 and 3 of Respondents' prior motion, with handwriting thereon; a one-page document entitled "Letter to Complaints"; a Proof of Service dated April 2, 2018; and another purported Record on Appeal. Copies of all of the documents received from the Appellant on April 6, 2018 are attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference collectively as Exhibit 1.

Once again, items 1 and 3 contained in the Respondents' Designation of Matter to be Included in the Record on Appeal were not included in the latest version of the Record on Appeal that was received from the Appellant. In his "Letter to Complaints," Appellant affirmatively states that there were no complaints filed on December 31, 2015 in Case #2015CV2110108515. This statement is untrue. Attached as Exhibit 2 to this motion is a copy of the Complaint that the Appellant filed in Magistrate's Court on December 31, 2015 with the case number set forth above.

Item number 3 in Respondents' Designation of Matter to be Included on Appeal, a letter from counsel for the Respondents to the Appellant dated June 23, 2016, was again not included in the latest version of the Record on Appeal. A copy of that letter is attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference as Exhibit 3.

Further, despite this court's Order of March 6, 2018, Appellant's handwriting appears on many of the pages in the Record on Appeal, though it appears that an attempt was made to blot out or otherwise remove some of the writing that was on the prior copy. In addition, Respondents, in their Designation of Matter, requested that their Motion to be Relieved from Default and Motion to Dismiss dated August 4, 2016, in the 2016 Magistrate's Court case, with attachments, be included in the Record on Appeal. Once again, the Appellant included only the first page. In his "Letter to Complaints," in item number 5, Appellant seems to be taking the position that, because he thinks the rest of the motion is irrelevant, he did not include it.

In addition to the grounds set forth above, it is also noted that, once again, the Appellant failed to serve copies of documents that were, apparently, filed with the court. In his Proof of Service dated April 2, 2018 and mailed April 4, 2018, it is indicated that the Appellant filed four copies of his Final Brief with the Court of Appeals. He did not enclose a copy of his Final Brief in what was served on the undersigned and that fact is reflected in the Proof of Service indicating only that he served a copy of the Record on Appeal. By her letter of February 1, 2018, Deputy Clerk V. Claire Allen advised the Appellant that his failure to provide sufficient Proof of Service in the future would result in the dismissal of the appeal. A violation has once again occurred.

CONCLUSION

The Respondents hereby request that the appeal be dismissed due to Appellant's continued failure to provide a proper Record on Appeal pursuant to the rules and the prior Order of this court as well as the Appellant's continued and repeated failure to serve documents on the opposing party.

Respectfully submitted,

April 12, 2018

MEMORANDUM AND CITATION OF AUTHORITIES

Respondents filed and served their Initial Brief on November 21, 2017, therefore, pursuant to Rule 210, SCACR, the Record on Appeal and Proof of Service of same were to be served and filed within thirty (30) days of that date.

The Record on Appeal was hand-delivered to the office of Respondents' counsel at 10:50 a.m. on December 29, 2017. The Affidavit of Karen C. Howard is attached hereto as Exhibit 1. The Proof of Service that accompanied the Record on Appeal indicated that it had been personally delivered on December 28, 2017. The thirty day period for service of the Record on Appeal expired on December 21, 2017, therefore, either the date on the Proof of Service or the date of actual delivery of the Record on Appeal was untimely pursuant to Rule 210. A copy of the Record on Appeal and Proof of Service that were hand-delivered to the office of Respondents' attorney is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

In the Designation of Matter to be included in the Record on Appeal, Respondents identified seven documents. Two of the documents were omitted from the Record on Appeal prepared by Appellant and many of the others either had Appellant's writing on them or were missing pages. The documents listed by Respondents were:

1. Complaint dated December 31, 2015 in Case #2015CV2110108515. This document was not included in the Record on Appeal received from Appellant.
2. Order of Final Disposition dated June 8, 2016 by Judge Langley in Case #2015CV2110108515. This was included as Exhibit 7.

See Letter for Answers to Complaints

3. Letter from Michael S. Hopewell to Edward Spears dated June 23, 2016 and Certificate of Service of the same date. The letter was not included though a copy of the Certificate of Service was included as Exhibit 6.

4. Complaint dated June 22, 2016 in Case #2016CV2110103875. This was included as Exhibit 5 though it contains handwriting on it, presumably written by Appellant.

5. Motion to be Relieved from Default and Motion to Dismiss dated August 4, 2016 filed by Respondents in Case #2016CV2110103875 (with attachments). Only the first page of this multi-page document was included in the Record on Appeal and it contains handwriting on it, presumably that of the Appellant. It is Exhibit 13A.

6. E-mail from Chief Magistrate Sandra M. Grimsley to Appellant dated August 11, 2016. This is included as Exhibit 12, however, it has handwriting on it, presumably that of the Appellant.

7. Notice of Appeal dated October 17, 2016 filed by Respondents in Case #2016-CP-21-02533. Only the first page of this multi-page document is included and it is covered with handwriting of an argumentative nature. It is listed as Exhibit 17A.

8. Order of the Honorable Thomas A. Russo filed on March 2, 2017 in Case #2016-CP-21-02533. This is included as Exhibit 17, however, it is marked with notes and handwriting, presumably that of the Appellant.

In addition to those documents identified above, the majority of the documents included in the Record on Appeal contain handwriting, presumably that of the Appellant.

Because the Record on Appeal is not complete and is, in fact, missing documents and pages that are required for the proper completion of Final Briefs, Respondents

LETTER TO COMPLAINTS

Attention Court of Appeals: This letter is in response to the complaints by Mike Hopewell, lawyer for defendant's R&R Cleaning and Natalie Harris. Also enclosed are the eight complaints and my answers to each complaint.

ANSWERS TO COMPLAINTS

1st complaint: Mr. Hopewell claim there were no complaints dated December 31, 2015. That's true because there were no complaints filed on that day. The lawsuit was filed January 19, 2016. See Record of Appeals page 1.

2nd complaint: The final disposition dated June 8th was enclosed with Record of Appeals. Mr. Hopewell is still trying to deceive the courts see exhibit 7 Records of Appeals.

3rd complaint: Mr. Hopewell said I did not include letter with certificate of service that was sent by his legal assistant. First Mr. Hopewell knew the information his very own legal assistant contained false, untrue, and unofficial information. It amazes me why someone is so bent on me sending information or (letter) that could only incriminate him further. To send out information to a plaintiff that the defendant's lawyer openly admitted that is not true (see R. P 20 highlighted). Sounds like an episode of World's Dumbest Crooks. Rule 210 expresses that only relevant evidence is to be sent to courts even if more than one document. The certificate indicates that Mr. Hopewell as well as his legal assistant sent to me an unofficial, untrue document. Therefore both are guilty of obstruction of justice.

4th complaint: The written ink on exhibit 5 has been removed.

5th complaint: Exhibit 13a as well as 17a only shows the part of the motion to dismiss that proves perjury and deception was made by Mr. Hopewell when he brought to court. The June 8th disposition he knew contained false information. As rule 210 explains only relevant information may be included when making a point. However the only other document of concern is indeed the June 8th disposition which is enclosed (see R. page 7). Also hand writing has been removed.

6th complaint: Ink has been removed from email from Sandra Grimsley.

7th complaint: Answers are the same as in complaint number 5. Ink has been removed (see page 25 7 26 R).

8th complaint: Ink has been removed from exhibit 17.

Added notes: Most all ink has been removed from documents. The documents that has statements circle are only highlighted. Rule 210 has not been violated because it speaks of nothing about ink. However, I did the best to obey the court's wishes. The circled and highlighted documents are only to assist the court in getting my point across.

P.S.~I have included four additional final briefs as well as seven Records of Appeals.

CONTINUING ACTION

THE PARTICULARS ARE (If additional paper is needed, attach extra sheet(s)):

I was intimidated on or about December 23, 2015 and subsequently discharged on or about December 31, 2015. I was subjected to antagonizing comments about my age and false accusations being made about me by a co-worker (younger). In addition, I was given a heavier work load than other employees (younger). I complained about my treatment to the Owners several times but no corrective action was taken. I was terminated after asking an employee (younger) to stop making statements about me that were not true. After being told I was terminated, I was placed in handcuffs by the Security Guard and told that I had made threats, which I did not. I contend I was treated in this manner in retaliation for my complaints and because of my age.

I therefore believe I have been discriminated against because of my age (61) and in retaliation for my opposition to employment practices declared unlawful by the SC Human Affairs Law, as amended and the US Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, as amended.

I want this charge filed with both the EEOC and the State or local Agency, if any. I will advise the agencies if I change my address or phone number and I will cooperate fully with them in the processing of my charge in accordance with their procedures.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the above is true and correct.

NOTICE TO THE PERSON AGGRIEVED:

Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), or the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act (GINA): This is your Notice of Right to Sue, issued under Title VII, the ADA or GINA based on the above-numbered charge. It has been issued at your request. Your lawsuit under Title VII, the ADA or GINA must be filed in a federal or state court WITHIN 90 DAYS of your receipt of this notice; or your right to sue based on this charge will be lost. (The time limit for filing suit based on a claim under state law may be different.)

- More than 180 days have passed since the filing of this charge.
- Less than 180 days have passed since the filing of this charge, but I have determined that it is unlikely that the EEOC will be able to complete its administrative processing within 180 days from the filing of this charge.
- The EEOC is terminating its processing of this charge.
- The EEOC will continue to process this charge.

Age Discrimination in Employment Act (ADEA): You may sue under the ADEA at any time from 60 days after the charge was filed until 90 days after you receive notice that we have completed action on the charge. In this regard, the paragraph marked below applies to your case:

- The EEOC is closing your case. Therefore, your lawsuit under the ADEA must be filed in federal or state court WITHIN 90 DAYS of your receipt of this Notice. Otherwise, your right to sue based on the above-numbered charge will be lost.
- The EEOC is continuing its handling of your ADEA case. However, if 60 days have passed since the filing of the charge, you may file suit in federal or state court under the ADEA at this time.

Equal Pay Act (EPA): You already have the right to sue under the EPA (filing an EEOC charge is not required.) EPA suits must be brought in federal or state court within 2 years (3 years for willful violations) of the alleged EPA underpayment. This means that backpay due for any violations that occurred more than 2 years (3 years) before you file suit may not be collectible.

If you file suit, based on this charge, please send a copy of your court complaint to this office.

EXB 8

A JUDGE SHALL PERFORM THE DUTIES OF JUDICIAL OFFICE IMPARTIALLY AND DILIGENTLY

A. Judicial Duties in General. The judicial duties of a judge take precedence over all the judge's other activities. The judge's judicial duties include all the duties of the judge's office prescribed by law.* In the performance of these duties, the following standards apply.

B. Adjudicative Responsibilities.

(1) A judge shall hear and decide matters assigned to the judge except those in which disqualification is required.

(2) A judge shall be faithful to the law* and maintain professional competence in it. A judge shall not be swayed by partisan interests, public clamor or fear of criticism.

(3) A judge shall require* order and decorum in proceedings before the judge.

(4) A judge shall be patient, dignified and courteous to litigants, jurors, witnesses, lawyers and others with whom the judge deals in an official capacity, and shall require* similar conduct of lawyers, and of staff, court officials and others subject to the judge's direction and control.

Commentary:

The duty to hear all proceedings fairly and with patience is not inconsistent with the duty to dispose promptly of the business of the court. Judges can be efficient and businesslike while being patient and deliberate.

told clerk not to retract disposition

(5) A judge shall perform judicial duties without bias or prejudice. A judge shall not, in the performance of judicial duties, by words or conduct manifest bias or prejudice, including but not limited to bias or prejudice based upon race, sex, religion, national origin, disability or age, and shall not permit staff, court officials and others subject to the judge's direction and control to do so.

Commentary:

A judge must refrain from speech, gestures or other conduct that could reasonably be perceived as sexual harassment and must require the same standard of conduct of others subject to the judge's direction and control.

A judge must perform judicial duties impartially and fairly. A judge who manifests bias on any basis in a proceeding impairs the fairness of the proceeding and brings the judiciary into disrepute. Facial expression and body language, in addition to oral communication, can give to parties or lawyers in the proceeding, jurors, the media and others an appearance of judicial bias. A judge must be alert to avoid behavior that may be perceived as prejudicial.

(6) A judge shall require* lawyers in proceedings before the judge to refrain from manifesting, by words or conduct, bias or prejudice based upon race, sex, religion, national origin, disability or age, against parties, witnesses, counsel or others. This Section 3B(6) does not preclude legitimate advocacy when race, sex, religion, national origin, disability, age, or other similar factors, are issues in the proceeding.

RULE 7. GROUNDS FOR DISCIPLINE; SANCTIONS IMPOSED; DEFERRED DISCIPLINE AGREEMENT

(a) Grounds for Discipline. It shall be a ground for discipline for a judge to:

- (1) violate or attempt to violate the Code of Judicial Conduct or the Rules of Professional Conduct or any other applicable ethics codes;
- (2) willfully violate a valid order of the Supreme Court, Commission or panels of the Commission in a proceeding under these rules, willfully fail to appear personally as directed, willfully fail to comply with a subpoena issued under these rules, or knowingly fail to respond to a lawful demand from a disciplinary authority to include a request for a response or appearance under Rule 19(b)(1), (c)(3) or (c)(4);
- (3) be convicted of a crime of moral turpitude or a serious crime;
- (4) persistently fail to perform judicial duties or persistently perform judicial duties in an incompetent or neglectful manner;
- (5) be habitually intemperate;
- (6) consistently fail to timely issue orders, decrees, opinions or otherwise perform official duties without just cause or excuse;
- (7) willfully violate a valid court order issued by a court of this state or another jurisdiction;
- (8) willfully fail to comply with the terms of a finally accepted deferred disciplinary agreement or any terms of a finally accepted agreement for discipline by consent;
- (9) violate the Judge's Oath of Office contained in Rule 502.1, SCACR.

(b) Sanctions. Misconduct shall be grounds for one or more of the following sanctions:

- (1) removal from Office by the Supreme Court. The removal shall operate as a permanent injunction prohibiting the judge from holding any judicial office within the unified judicial system in South Carolina. On petition, the Supreme Court may dissolve this permanent injunction;
- (2) suspension by the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court may also make a recommendation to the appropriate authority that the judge not be reappointed to the office at the end of the judge's term;
- (3) public reprimand;
- (4) admonition, provided that an admonition may be used in subsequent proceedings as evidence of prior misconduct solely upon the issue of sanction to be imposed;
- (5) assessment of the costs of the proceeding, including the cost of hearings, investigations, service of process and court reporter services;
- (6) limitations on the nature and extent of the judge's performance of judicial duties; or amount in which the plaintiff is entitled.

A suit on an account is where the defendant had a charge account with the plaintiff or where the plaintiff sold the defendant goods or services. The notarized statement of account should itemize all charges to the account and all credits to the balance being sued on. An example of credits that should be shown are partial payments made by the defendants. The statement of account must be signed by the plaintiff and his signature must be notarized (See FORMS section of the Bench Book).

In unliquidated suits where the amount being sued for is not readily ascertainable and must be determined by the court, a damage hearing must be held when the defendant is in default. An example of this is where the defendant has damaged the plaintiff's automobile. The amount of those damages is not already established and, therefore, the plaintiff must appear at the damage hearing and prove the amount of his damages.

If the defendant has been placed in default, a damage hearing has been set for the plaintiff to come in and prove his damages, and the plaintiff fails to appear at the damage hearing after due notice, the plaintiff's complaint should be dismissed.

Likewise, if a defendant has filed an answer but fails to appear at the trial, then the trial should proceed without the defendant and the plaintiff would be permitted to prove his damages or claim against the defendant without the defendant having the chance to dispute the plaintiff's claims.

In cases where a defendant has been served, failed to file an answer within the prescribed time, placed in default, and the suit is for an unliquidated sum, the court must arrange a damage hearing for the plaintiff to prove the amount of his damages or claim. The court should notify the defendant and the plaintiff of the date and time of that hearing. The defendant is entitled to attend the hearing if he so desires. If the defaulting defendant appears at the damage hearing, he is not entitled to put forth any evidence or testimony disputing liability to the plaintiff. A defaulting party's participation at a damage hearing is limited to objecting to evidence and cross-examining plaintiff's witnesses.

If at the time of filing the complaint, a plaintiff requests that the court send him a copy of the affidavit of service of the complaint on the defendant, the court should send a copy of the affidavit of service to the plaintiff as soon after the complaint is served as possible. When a plaintiff is represented by an attorney, the attorney will generally use the copy of the affidavit of service to determine if the defendant has filed an answer within the prescribed time. If the defendant does not file an answer within that time, the attorney will then forward an affidavit of default to the court. If the amount claimed is for liquidated damages or is a suit on an account with a notarized statement of account attached, he should also forward an order of default judgment which could be signed by the Court and filed.

A notice of hearing should not be attached to the summons and complaint when it is served. At this point of the case, the court does not know if the defendant will answer and, therefore, whether a hearing is necessary. A hearing should not be set and a notice of hearing sent to the parties until the defendant has filed an answer with the court, or has failed to file an answer within the prescribed time and placed in default by the Court. This enables the plaintiff, when coming to the hearing, to know if the defendant is contesting

FLORENCE SUMMARY COURT

Summary

This civil case came to the attention of this court On September 15, 2016, when Edward Spears filed a complaint against Natalie Harris D/B/A R & R Cleaning Services. The case file was reviewed by the court, after the case was assigned to Judge Jerry F. Rivers by Chief Magistrate Sandra Grimsley due to Mr. Spears's request specifically that his case not be heard by Judges Neron Langley, Peter E. Becker, or Frank White, and due to the recall of the case originally by Judge Peter E. Becker after misinformation was given to the court concerning earlier dismissal of complaint with prejudice in Mr. Spears's action. Upon instructions given to Judge Rivers, the case was reopened, and Mr. Spears requested a jury trial. Mr. Spears was then advised by the court that his case would be scheduled for jury trial as requested. There was no court hearing at that time prior to the filing of the appeal by Mr. Spears. The only actions taken on September 15, 2016, were reopening the case and honoring Mr. Spears's request for jury trial, as Judge Rivers treated the case as a pretrial Summons and Complaint hearing.

Civil Procedure in Magistrates' Courts

6. Answering the Complaint

If the defendant chooses to answer, whether in writing or orally (which must be reduced to writing), he must do so within the time period prescribed in the summons (30 days) or he may be held in default. This time period is calculated by excluding the first day (day of service) and including the last day. If the last day is a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the defendant has until the next day which is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday. (Rule 3 and Rule 6(a), SCRCP).

The answer, like other pleadings in the magistrate court may be made orally, or in writing. If made orally, it must be made personally before the magistrate or court personnel and must be reduced to writing, with the assistance of the magistrate or court personnel, if the court determines such assistance is necessary. (Rule 7, SCRMC) Magistrates should not allow answers or complaints or other pleadings to be made by telephone. The answer may contain a denial of the complaint or any part of it, but must contain notice of facts constituting any defense.

The defendant, at the time of making his answer or at any time thereafter but within the time prescribed in the summons, may assert a counterclaim which arises out of the same transaction or occurrence as the plaintiff's complaint. (Rules 7 and 9, SCRMC). Whether made in the answer or thereafter, the counterclaim may be made in writing or orally (and reduced to writing), as any other pleading and must contain facts sufficient to support its assertion. The claims contained in a counterclaim shall be deemed denied by the plaintiff and no answer or reply is required to be filed by the plaintiff in response to a counterclaim filed by the defendant.

The defendant in a counterclaim may waive the excess of the claim over the jurisdictional maximum to bring it within the jurisdiction of magistrate court. If the defendant elects to waive a portion of the counterclaim, a separate action for the remainder of the may not be maintained. If the defendant does not waive the excess, the entire can shall be transferred to the circuit court and tried as a reaction to the originally filed there. (Rule 9(b), SCRMC).

The court shall deliver a copy of the answer and any counterclaim to the plaintiff in a manner provided for in Rule 8, SCRMC.

10. Default Judgments and Dismissals

In unliquidated suits where the amount being sued for is not readily ascertainable and must be determined by the court, a damage hearing must be held when the defendant is in default. An example of this is where the defendant has damaged the plaintiff's automobile. The amount of those damages is not already established and, therefore, the plaintiff must appear at the damage hearing and prove the amount of his damages.

P. 17

Non-Jury Trials

1. Generally

Trials in the magistrates' courts may be either with or without a jury. Either party to a civil suit is constitutionally entitled to a trial by jury upon demand, but upon agreement of both parties, the right to trial by jury may be waived.

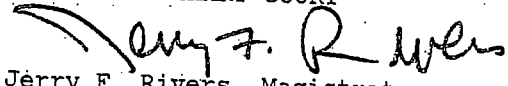

APPEAL GROUNDS

The appellant is appealing the Judge's decision and states based on his claim that, "The magistrate court then scheduled another default hearing on September 15, 2016, only to have the default hearing turned down again because Judge Rivers violated again Rule 6 and 10 of the magistrate rules for civil Court in a default hearing. He also changed the default hearing to a complaint hearing which he had no legal basis for doing so."

ANSWER AND CONCLUSION

The appellant's case was reopened and treated as a pre-trial Summons and complaint hearing. Appellant was explained his right to a jury trial, which he requested. Therefore at that point, the court did not hold the Summons and Complaint hearing but merely scheduled the case for jury trial as permitted by law at Mr. Spears request.

These magistrate appeals came to be heard on February 16, 2017, before the Honorable Thomas A. Russo. Present at the hearing were Mr. Edward Spears, pro se, and Mr. Michael S. Hopewell, Esquire, for R&R Carpet and Cleaning Service and Natalie Harris ("Underlying Defendants"). Because both appeals arose from the same decision of the magistrate in the underlying case, the Court is addressing them contemporaneously. After hearing oral arguments, reviewing the record, and considering the applicable law, the Court finds that the Underlying Defendants' appeal is granted, Mr. Spears' appeal is denied, and the underlying case should be dismissed with prejudice.

P. 19 5 pages

BACKGROUND

This case has a somewhat complicated procedural history that begins with a separate but nearly identical lawsuit. On January 19, 2016, Mr. Spears filed a complaint in Magistrate's Court against R&R Carpet and Cleaning Service ("R&R"), Natalie Harris, and Matt Rogers, alleging claims for harassment, favoritism, supervisory negligence, retaliation, and wrongful termination (Civil Action Number 2015CV211010515). That case came to a hearing before the Honorable Roger Neron Langley on April 7, 2016. Both Mr. Spears and Mr. Hopewell were present and recall Judge Langley issuing an oral ruling from the bench, dismissing the case with prejudice as to Matt Rogers and without prejudice as to Natalie Harris and R&R. However, Judge Langley's Order of Final Disposition, issued on June 8, 2016, dismissed the entire case with prejudice. A copy of the Order was served on Mr. Spears on June 23, 2016.<sup>1</sup>

On June 22, 2016, Mr. Spears filed a new complaint with identical allegations, this time naming only R&R and Natalie Harris as parties (Civil Action Number 2016CV2110103875). Defendants failed to answer within thirty (30) days and a default hearing to determine damages was scheduled for August 15, 2016, before the Honorable Peter E. Becker. On August 4, 2016, Defendants filed a Motion to be Relieved from Default and a Motion to Dismiss, arguing that Mr. Spears failed to timely appeal Judge Langley's Order dated June 8, 2016, and that the second lawsuit should be barred under the doctrine of res judicata. At the August 15 hearing, Judge Becker granted Defendants' motions, ordering from the bench that the entire case would be dismissed with prejudice. However, no formal Order was entered.

<sup>1</sup> At the appellate hearing, Mr. Spears showed the Court an untitled, unsigned, and undated form that was filled out by hand. The document purported to provide a revised ruling from the Magistrate's Court to the following effect: "Dismiss as to Matt Rogers with prejudice. Dismiss as to R&R Cleaning and Harris without prejudice. Can refile later if Human Affairs gives him permission." Because the document was not a certified copy and could not even be identified as an official document of the Magistrate's Office, the Court cannot consider its contents.

Thereafter, for reasons that were not made abundantly clear to this Court, Judge Becker's ruling was recalled and the case reassigned to the Honorable Jerry F. Rivers. See Return on Appeal, 2016-CP-21-2423 at 1 (Nov. 7, 2016). A hearing was scheduled for September 15, 2016 "for the purpose of determining the amount of judgment to be awarded the Plaintiff." Magistrate Summons, 2016CV2110103875 (Aug. 23, 2016). At that hearing, Judge Rivers reopened the case to conduct a pretrial Summons and Complaint hearing, ruling from the bench that Mr. Spears was entitled to a jury trial. See Return on Appeal, 2016-CP-21-2423 at 1 (Nov. 7, 2016). These appeals followed.

STANDARD OF REVIEW

In South Carolina, the Circuit Court hears appeals from the Magistrate's Court. Upon hearing the appeal, the appellate court shall give judgment according to the justice of the case, without regard to technical errors and defects which do not affect the merits. S.C. Code Ann. § 18-7-170. The Circuit Court may affirm or reverse the judgment of the Magistrate, in whole or in part, as to any or all the parties or for errors in law or fact. Id.

DISCUSSION

Mr. Spears filed his Notice of Appeal on October 4, 2016, arguing, in pertinent part, that Judge Rivers erred when he "changed the default hearing to a complaint hearing which he had no legal basis for doing so," thus entitling Mr. Spears to a default judgment. The Defendants then filed their Notice of Appeal on October 17, requesting that this Court relieve them from default and dismiss the case under the doctrine of res judicata.

An appellant, within thirty days after written notice of judgment has been given him or his attorney by the magistrate . . . shall serve a notice of appeal, stating the grounds upon which the appeal is founded. S.C. Code Ann. § 18-7-20. Here, Mr. Spears failed to timely appeal Judge

Langley's Order of Final Disposition dated June 8, 2016. Mr. Spears also had the opportunity to file a Motion to Reconsider Judge Langley's Order within ten days after receipt of written notice of the entry of the order. See Rule 59(e), SCRCP. However, he did not do so, opting instead to re-file the lawsuit. As such, Judge Langley's Order dismissing the entire case with prejudice remains the final order of the first lawsuit.

The doctrine of res judicata bars subsequent actions by the same parties when the claims arise out of the same transaction or occurrence that was the subject of prior action between those parties. See, e.g., Plum Creek Dev. Co., Inc. v. City of Conway, 334 S.C. 30, 34, 512 S.E.2d 106, 109 (1999). To establish res judicata, the defendant must prove the following three elements: (1) identity of the parties; (2) identity of the subject matter; and (3) adjudication of the issue in the former suit. Id. Here, the parties to Mr. Spears' second lawsuit were the same as those named in the first. Likewise, the causes of action in the second suit were identical to the first.

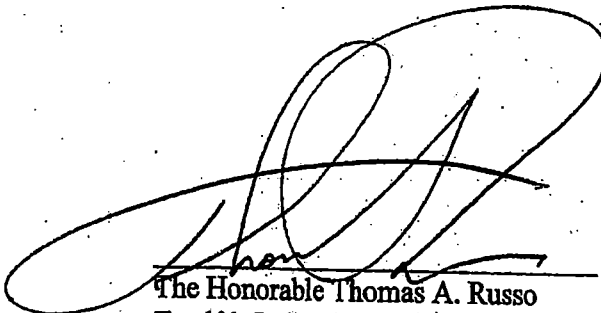

As to the third element, the former suit was dismissed with prejudice. "A dismissal of a case without prejudice means that the plaintiff can reassert the same cause(s) of action by curing the defects that led to dismissal. By contrast, dismissals with prejudice are intended to bar relitigation of the same claim." Collins v. Sigmon, 299 S.C. 464, 467, 385 S.E. 2d 835, 837 (1989) (internal quotations and citations omitted). "Where an action has been dismissed with prejudice, the judgment operates in subsequent litigation to the same extent as if the action had been tried to a final adjudication." Jones v. City of Folly Beach, 326 S.C. 360, 366, 483 S.E.2d 770, 773 (1997). Therefore, the underlying Defendants have established that the doctrine of res judicata applies here. As a result, Mr. Spears' second lawsuit is barred as a matter of law.

CONCLUSION

Therefore, for the reasons set forth above, it is ORDERED that the Underlying Defendants' appeal is granted, Mr. Spears' appeal is denied, and the underlying case be dismissed in its entirety with prejudice.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

IN THE MAGISTRATE'S COURT
CIVIL CASE #2016CV2110103875

MOTION TO BE RELIEVED FROM DEFAULT AND MOTION TO DISMISS

The Defendants, through their undersigned attorneys, shall, on August 15, 2016 at 11:00 a.m. or at such other time as shall be designated by the Court, move the Court to relieve the Defendants from default and to dismiss the Plaintiff's case.

The grounds for this motion as that the same Plaintiff filed a lawsuit against the same Defendants for alleged damages arising from the same incident that is complained about in the present case. That case was captioned Edward Spears vs. R&R Carpet and Cleaning Service, Natalia Robinson and Matt Rogers, Civil Action Number 2015CV2110108515. The previous case came to a hearing before the Honorable Roger Neron Langley on April 7, 2016. As a result of that hearing, the case was dismissed with prejudice by an Order dated June 8, 2016. A copy of Judge Langley's Order is attached.

A copy of Judge Langley's Order was served on the Plaintiff on June 23, 2016. A copy of the letter serving a copy of the Order and a Certificate of Service of the Order of Final Disposition is attached. The Plaintiff failed to timely appeal Judge Langley's Order and the time to appeal has passed.

Therefore, the Defendants pray that they be relieved of default and that the present case be dismissed under the doctrine of res judicata.

NOTICE OF APPEAL

TO THE DEFENDANT ABOVE NAMED:

YOU WILL PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that the Plaintiffs, R&R Carpet & Cleaning Service and Natalie Harris, herewith appeal the judgment of the Florence County Magistrate's Court dated September 15, 2016. The grounds for this appeal are that on September 15, 2016, the Honorable Jerry Rivers ruled from the bench that the Plaintiff in the Magistrate's Court case was to receive a jury trial in that case.

The grounds for the appeal are contained in the Motion to be Relieved from Default and Motion to Dismiss that is attached.

That Motion was heard by the Honorable Pete Becker on August 15, 2016. Judge Becker ruled from the bench that the motion was granted and the underlying case would be dismissed with prejudice but no written Order was entered. Judge Rivers' ruling from the bench on September 15, 2016 would seem to contradict the ruling by Judge Becker.

For all the above reasons, the Plaintiffs request this Court vacate the judgment entered on September 15, 2016 and rule that the underlying Magistrate's Court case be dismissed with prejudice.

communication;

To opposing parties and their counsel, I pledge fairness, integrity, and civility, not only in court, but also in all written and oral communications;

I will not pursue or maintain any suit or proceeding which appears to me to be unjust nor maintain any defenses except those I believe to be honestly debatable under the law of the land, but this obligation shall not prevent me from defending a person charged with a crime;

I will employ for the purpose of maintaining the causes confided to me only such means as are consistent with trust and honor and the principles of professionalism, and will never seek to mislead an opposing party, the judge or jury by a false statement of fact or law;

I will respect and preserve inviolate the confidences of my clients, and will accept no compensation in connection with a client's business except from the client or with the client's knowledge and approval;

I will maintain the dignity of the legal system and advance no fact prejudicial to the honor or reputation of a party or witness, unless required by the justice of the cause with which I am charged;

I will assist the defenseless or oppressed by ensuring that justice is available to all citizens and will not delay any person's cause for profit or malice;

[So help me God.]
