Attn: Tonya Kohn,

Appellate Case No: 2018-000548

Rule 207 Notice of Extension

Appellant is writing to request a extension of the time to order the transcripts, for he was unaware of transcript proceeding procedure. And funds to purchase the transcripts were not available to the appellate at the time off the timeframe to send the Notice of Appeal. Appellant has written a letter requesting the transcripts, on April 16, 2018 to the (ALC), Appellant is asking for the extension so that he may be in compliance with the courts procedures so that his case isn't dismiss.

Attn: Tony Kohn,

When no oral Argument was taken in the (ALC) state remedy process. Does the Appellant have to order a transcript in the next Court of Appeals procedure. Appellant's notice of Appeal was filed with the courts on March 28, 2018. Appellant received a case NO: 2018-000548 on April 10, 2018. Because appellant was required to pay filing fee April 16, 2018 Can he ask the courts to grant a extension to deliver the transcripts if they are required. Enclosed I have a letter requesting extended time to order the transcript, if I am in error, for it would come to your offices right?

Thanks in Advance,
