

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Olayinka A. Babatunde, Petitioner,

v.

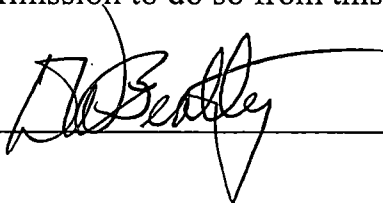

State of South Carolina, Respondent

Appellate Case No. 2017-000165

ORDER

Petitioner filed a notice of appeal from the denial of his fifth application for post-conviction (PCR). Petitioner was asked to provide the explanation required by Rule 243(c), SCACR, and in light of the number of PCR applications petitioner has filed, he was also asked to provide any reasons this Court should not impose restrictions on his filing of collateral actions challenging his 2000 convictions and sentences for armed robbery, first degree burglary, and kidnaping (1999-GS-40-45868, -45869, and -46281).

Petitioner has failed to show that there is an arguable basis for asserting the denial of his fifth PCR application was improper, nor has he asserted any reason this Court should not impose restrictions on his future filings. Accordingly, we dismiss the notice of appeal pursuant to Rule 243(c), SCACR. In addition, we hereby prohibit petitioner from filing any further collateral actions in the circuit court, including PCR actions and habeas corpus actions, as well as any motions relating to the previously filed collateral actions, challenging his 2000 convictions and sentences for armed robbery, first degree burglary, and kidnaping, or any motions in the underlying criminal case, including a motion pursuant to Rule 29, SCRCrimP, without first obtaining permission to do so from this Court.
