Re: Walter McQune v. State
Appellate Case No. 2017-001915

Dear Mr. McQune:

On April 16, 2018, the enclosed order was mailed to you at the Allendale County Detention Center. This copy was returned to this Court as being undeliverable.

If you still desire to proceed pro se in this matter, you will need provide the notification required by the enclosed order within twenty (20) days of the date of this letter.

Very truly yours,

CLERK

Enclosure

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Walter J. McQune, Petitioner,

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2017-001915

ORDER

This matter is before the Court by way of a notice of appeal from an order of the circuit court denying petitioner's application for post-conviction relief (PCR). Petitioner is currently represented by Wanda H. Carter, of the South Carolina Commission on Indigent Defense, Division of Appellate Defense. Petitioner moves to relieve Ms. Carter as counsel and to proceed pro se, with the Division of Appellate Defense remaining associated for the purposes of providing copies of the petition and appendix, and any briefs should the petition for a writ of certiorari be granted.

Petitioner may proceed pro se as long as he knowingly and intelligently waives his right to counsel. See Faretta v. California, 422 U.S. 806 (1975); State v. Brewer, 328 S.C. 117, 492 S.E.2d 97 (1997). However, it is not apparent from petitioner's motion that he is fully aware of the dangers and disadvantages of proceeding pro se. We therefore take this opportunity to warn petitioner that if he chooses to proceed pro se, this Court will require full compliance with all applicable rules and procedures, and failure to comply with such rules and procedures could result in the dismissal of the matter and forfeiture of the right to discretionary review. Petitioner is certain to be unlearned in other aspects of the law as well. Representation by an attorney trained in the law would be highly beneficial, and we strongly encourage petitioner to continue with representation by Ms. Carter.

After considering this information, petitioner shall, within twenty (20) days of the date of this order, notify this Court whether he wishes to proceed pro se or continue to be represented by Ms. Carter. If petitioner fails to notify this Court of his intentions within twenty (20) days, Ms. Carter will continue to be listed as counsel of record in this matter.
