APPEAL FROM SUMTER COUNTY

Court of Common Pleas

R. Ferrell Cothran Jr. Circuit Court Judge

Case No. 2017-002068

RECEIVED

MAY 07 2018

SC Court of Appeals

Charlie L. Jones, ..... Appellant,

v.

Certain Interested Underwriters at Lloyd’s London Subscribing to Policy Number
TMASHO144229, Tapco Underwriters, Inc., Creech, Roddey & Watson, and Crawford &
Company, ..... Respondents.

MOTION FOR ORDER TO TURN OVER TRANSCRIPT

Appellant comes before the South Carolina Supreme Court with MOTION FOR ORDER TO TURN OVER TRANSCRIPT to Appellant, based on the following:

This MOTION is made in accordance with South Carolina’s Appellate Court Rule 207.

1. Appellant filed this appeal in the South Carolina Court of Appeals on October 3, 2017, and received South Carolina Court of Appeals confirmation in a document dated October 10, 2017 (See Exhibit A).
2. Appellant contacted Court Reporter for Sumter County Circuit Court, regarding the cost to transcribe court records of June 5, 2017, on October 11, 2017.
3. On correspondence dated October 13, 2018, Court Reporter acknowledged receiving Appellant's request for the transcript (See Exhibit B).
4. On November 3, 2017, Appellate forwarded full payment to Court Reporter to transcribe the transcript (See Exhibits C and D).
5. On January 12, 2018, Appellant sent the required update on the ordered transcript to all parties (See Exhibit E).
6. On a letter dated January 19, 2018, to Appellant from Court Reporter, stating that the transcript had been mailed to Appellant on December 4, 2017 by certified mail (See Exhibit F).
7. On January 22, 2018, Appellant responded to Court Reporter's letter, and Court Reporter's claimed that she had already mail the transcript (See Exhibit G).
8. At Appellant's requests, Court Reporter forwarded Appellant the Tracking Numbers 701705530000102996770, to track the transcript that was mailed to

- Appellant January 29, 2018, according to Court Reporter (See Exhibit H).
9. The first search by the US Postal Service revealed "No results found for the search criteria." (See Exhibit I).
  10. On February 12, 2018, a second search conducted by Mr. James A. Harrell, US Postmaster revealed that the Package was returned to sender on December 20, 2017 (See Exhibits J and K)
  11. Appellant received a letter dated March 8, 2018, from the South Carolina Court of Appeals, requesting an alternative mailing address for the transcript to be sent (See Exhibit L).
  12. On March 14, 2018, Appellant mailed an alternative address to the South Carolina Court of Appeals (See Exhibit M).
  13. It is clear to Appellant, that the Court Reporter fail to comply with Appellate Rule 207 (3), Delivery of Transcript (See Exhibit N)
  14. It is also clear to Appellant that the Court Reporter has not complied with Appellate Rule 207 (a) (6), Failure to Comply (See Exhibit N).
  15. Appellant also believes that Court Reporter are in contempt of court by the willful failure to deliver the transcript, Appellate Rule 207 (a) (6) (See Exhibit N)

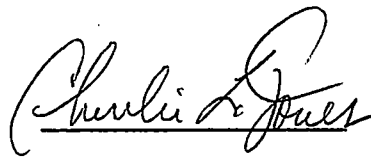

16. As of the date of this Motion Request, Appellant has not received the ordered transcript. The US Postal Service does except Certified Mail for delivery to Post Office Boxes.

17. The Court Reporter's name is Frances B. Ray, 2216 Timberlane Drive, Florence, SC 29506.

REQUEST FROM THE COURT

Appellant request of the South Carolina Supreme Court to issue an immediate ORDER, in accordance with South Carolina Appellate Rule 207 (a) (6), ordering the Court Reporter to turn over the requested transcript of June 5, 2017 to Appellant within thirty (30) days from the date of this Motion Request, or be held in contempt of court.

Respectfully Submitted,

Dear Mr. Jones:

I received a copy of your letter of January 12, 2018 to Court Administration regarding not having received the transcripts in your case. The transcript of June 5, 2017 was mailed on December 4, 2017, certified mail receipt, from the Sumter post office to the above address. All correspondence I have received from you is from the above address. Also included with that transcript is a letter informing you the cost of the second hearing you requested. Once receiving those funds I will also forward it to you.

RE: CHARLIE L. JONES V. KIRBY SHEALY, III, ET. AL. / APPELLATE CASE NUMBER: 2017-002068:

Dear Ms Ray,

Please be advised that to my knowledge, I have not received transcripts from you regarding the above referenced case. I am not saying that you did not send them, but the transcripts never got into my hands.

I spoke with a supervisor at the Sumter County Post Office today after receiving your letter. According to the Supervisor, they can track the package for delivery attempts, or verification that the package was delivered. All I need is the Tracking Numbers of the Package, and we can get this cleared up. So, if you or the court can mail, or email me the Tracking Numbers of the package, I can respond to the Appellate Court and all other parties accordingly.

Regarding the second order for transcripts, you did not respond at the time I made the request, and today is the first time I heard from you regarding the second set of transcripts. Therefore, I had already decided not to order those transcripts in the interest of saving time.

Sincerely,

Charlie L Jones

RULE 207
TRANSCRIPT OF PROCEEDING

Exh. N

(a) Appeals From a Lower Court.

(1) Ordering the Transcript. Where a transcript of the proceeding must be prepared by the court reporter, appellant shall, within the time provided for ordering the transcript, make satisfactory arrangements (including agreement regarding payment for the transcript), in writing with the court reporter for furnishing the transcript. In appeals from the court of common pleas, masters in equity, special referees or the family court in domestic actions, the transcript must be ordered within ten (10) days after the date of service of the notice of appeal. In appeals from the court of general sessions or the family court in juvenile actions, the transcript must be ordered within thirty (30) days of the date of service of the notice of appeal. Appellant shall contemporaneously furnish all counsel of record, the Office of Court Administration, and the clerk of the appellate court with copies of all correspondence with the court reporter. Unless the parties otherwise agree in writing, appellant must order a transcript of the entire proceedings below. If a party to the appeal unjustifiably refuses to agree to ordering less than the entire transcript, appellant may move to be awarded costs for having unnecessary portions transcribed; this motion must be made no later than the time the final briefs are due under Rule 211.

(2) Delivery of Transcript. The court reporter shall transcribe and deliver the transcript to appellant no later than sixty (60) days after the date of the request. Records shall be transcribed by the court reporter in the order in which the requests for transcripts are made.

(3) Extension for Court Reporter. If a court reporter anticipates continuous engagement in the performance of other official duties which make it impossible to prepare a transcript in compliance with this Rule, the reporter shall promptly notify the Office of Court Administration in writing of the fact, setting forth the caption of the case involved, the length of time required to complete the transcript, and the nature and probable duration of the conflicting official duties. The Office of Court Administration may grant an extension of up to ninety (90) days. An extension in excess of ninety (90) days shall not be allowed except by order of the Chief Justice.

(4) Notice of Extension. Upon the granting of any extension of time for delivery of the transcript, the Office of Court Administration shall notify all parties and the clerk of the appellate court.

(5) Failure to Receive Transcript. If appellant has not received the transcript within the allotted time nor received notification of an extension within ten (10) days after the allotted time, appellant shall notify the Office of Court Administration, the clerk of the appellate court, and the court reporter in writing.

(6) Failure to Comply. The willful failure of a court reporter to comply with the provisions of this Rule shall constitute contempt of court enforceable by order of the Supreme Court.

(b) Appeals From an Administrative Tribunal.

(1) Ordering the Transcript. Within ten (10) days after the date of service of the notice of appeal, appellant shall, in writing, make satisfactory arrangements with the administrative the entire proceedings before the administrative tribunal. If a party to the appeal unjustifiably refuses to agree to order less than the entire transcript, appellant may move to be awarded costs for having unnecessary portions transcribed; this motion must be made no later than the time the final briefs are due under Rule 211. The administrative tribunal may establish reasonable rates for providing the transcript or a copy thereof.

(2) Delivery of Transcript. The administrative tribunal shall insure that the transcript is delivered to the appellant within (60) days after the date of the request.

(3) Extension. If the administrative tribunal cannot deliver the transcript in the time specified, it shall promptly seek an extension from the appellate court. The request for an extension shall be in writing and shall comply with Rule 240, SCACR.

(4) Failure to Receive Transcript. If appellant has not received the transcript within the allotted time nor received notification of an extension within ten (10) days after the allotted time, appellant shall notify the clerk of the appellate court, and the administrative tribunal in writing.

(c) Duty of Appellant. The transcript received from the court reporter or the administrative tribunal must be retained by appellant during the entire appeal and for a period of at least one (1) year after the remittitur (See Rule 221) is sent to the lower court or administrative tribunal.

Last amended by Order dated January 29, 2009, effective April 29, 2009, by Order of the same date.

RE: Charlie L. Jones v. Certain Underwriters at Lloyd's London Subscribing to Policy Number TMASHO144229; Tapco Underwriters, Inc., Creech, Roddy and Watson; and Crawford & Company; Appellant Case No. 2017-002068:

Dear Sir:

Enclosed, please find a MOTION FOR ORDER TO TURN OVER TRANSCRIPT; an original and six (6) copies. Although this case is currently in the South Carolina Court of Appeals, my legal research indicates that the South Carolina Supreme Court is the proper venue to consider this motion. Also enclosed is a money order in the amount of $25.00 to cover filing cost.

Be advised that all exhibits are in alphabetical order.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact me using the above contact information.

Sincerely,

Charlie L. Jones
