Good afternoon Ms. Gordon. I emailed you on April 5th regarding the status of our transcript request. You replied on April 8th and advised you had a medical issue and would be submitting an extension request. As of today, we have not received the transcript nor an extension request. Can you please give us an update? Also, I hope that you are doing better since your recent medical issue.

Good afternoon Ms. Gordon. I emailed you on April 5th regarding the status of our transcript request. You replied on April 8th and advised you had a medical issue and would be submitting an extension request. As of today, we have not received the transcript nor an extension request. Can you please give us an update? Also, I hope that you are doing better since your recent medical issue.

Good evening to all .....

I have had an immediate medical issue come up and may have to transfer your request to another reporter for completion.

In the interim I will be submitting an extension request.
