APPELLANT'S MOTION TO ORDER TRANSCRIPT

Now comes Plaintiffs' through their undersigned counsel seeking the courts approval to order a transcript of the hearing held on April 14, 2016 regarding the above referenced case. In support of this motion Plaintiffs' attorney was of the opinion that the court would provide a schedule as to when the transcript and other documents were due. After some time had passed counsel's office contacted the court and learned that the schedule for submission of the documents was outlined in the appellate rules. Accordingly, counsel requests this court's approval to order the transcript from the April 14, 2016 hearing.

AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF APPELLANT'S MOTION TO ORDER TRANSCRIPT

I am Thomas Ray Sims, Counsel for Appellants, in the above referenced case. The facts relied upon in support of this motion are not contained in the record on appeal or appendix. Nor has the record on Appeal or Appendix been filed. Pursuant to SC Appellate Rule 240 (c) Counsel submits this Affidavit.

Counsel did not request the transcript of the April 14, 2016, hearing before the Honorable Maite Murphy as he was mistakenly of the opinion that this court would notify the Appellant that the transcript of the hearing was due on a certain date. Counsel later learned after reviewing the rules of this court that Appellant should make arrangements in writing with the court reporter for furnishing the transcript.
