

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

The State, Appellant,

v.

Raheem Aquil, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2016-002029

ORDER

This is an appeal in which the State seeks to reverse the circuit court's termination of Aquil's participation in the community supervision program. The State has now filed a motion to dismiss its appeal as moot, asserting Aquil's time in the community supervision program has expired. Because no actual controversy remains to be resolved by the court, the motion to dismiss is granted. See Curtis v. State, 345 S.C. 557, 567, 549 S.E.2d 591, 596 (2001) ("An appellate court will not pass on moot and academic questions or make an adjudication where there remains no actual controversy."). The remittitur will be sent as provided in Rule 221, SCACR.
