SC Court of Appeals

I went to Richland County Court of Common Pleas on June 9, 2016. I had a motion hearing # 968 in Courtroom 2E at 2:00 PM. and the Circuit Court Judge D. Craig Brown resided. On June 14, 2016 my case was dismissed. I filed a timely 59(e) motion on June 22, 2016. Ten days past and I got no ruling. So I went to the Court of Appeals on August 10, 2016 and explained how I had a pending 59(e) motion. Pursuant to Hudson-V-Hudson my case was dismissed without prejudice. I thought my time was stayed until the ruling on this motion. I'm a mental health layman housed at Gilliam Psychiatric Hospital so I guess I read it wrong. But I wrote to you on 10-27-16, 11-13-16, and 11-25-16. I am indigent and can only get 6.43 on my account. The amount you told me the transcript will be was $35.75. I will have my High School friend Monica Miller pay this, but im in need of this transcript. Pursuant to Rule 607 court reports are not required to retain the records from proceedings for more than five years. So im inside that time frame and my High School friend Monica Miller from Spartanburg S.C. will pay the costs. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Motion Requesting transcript outside of deadlines set by Rule 207

I the appellant motion requesting permission to order the transcript outside of the filing deadlines set by Rule 207 of SCACR. Initially I filed an appeal August 10, 2016 but I had a post trial motion pending. Case # 2016-001606. I thought this time was stayed until the lower court ruled on the motion but in a mental health layman housed at Gilliam Psychiatric Hospital and I was wrong. The motion was finally ruled on April 30, 2018 and I received notice May 11, 2018. So I humbly motion for a transcript from L. Coconut Pantseri from the Richland County Court of common pleas on June 9, 2016. Motion hearing # 968 in Courtroom 2E at 2:00 PM and the Circuit Court Judge was D Craig Brown. Pursuant to Rule 607 court reporters are required to hold records for five years.
