Dear Sir/Madam;

This is my response to your notice for why my case should have a new hearing:

- a. I am innocent!
- b. If someone will closely review my case, there is only circumstantial evidence!
- c. There is no DNA evidence to my knowledge! If I committed this crime, it would stand to reason that there would be some "concrete evidence" of some type such as DNA.
- d. It is my understanding there were some "DNA" discovered during the investigation, but the DNA is not mine!
- e. If the DNA that was found is not mine, then why was I found guilty?
- f. It would be an awful tragedy for me to serve 50 years for a crime I did not commit!
- g. It would be a miracle if after I have served many years and then through some advancement in technology, it was proven that I was not guilty. But what about all those years that I have lost?
- h. It is my understanding that to be found guilty a person has to be proven guilty beyond a "reasonable doubt!" Please, Sir/Madam, there has to be a lot of "reasonable doubt," in my case, because the evidence is not there.
- i. My trial took place in December. The trial "took longer" than expected and it was getting closer to Christmas. When the case was finally given to the jury to decide my fate, it only took them about 45 minutes to determine that I was guilty beyond a "reasonable doubt!" Please, please look at the case and the information that was given to the jury. Is the evidence so clear and convincing that they could decide my fate in such a short time? Or they were more concerned about getting their Christmas shopping done?

Dear Sir/Madam, I am "earnestly pleading" please, please take a much more in-depth and open minded review of my case! From the "depths of my heart and my soul," I am asking for your help! God bless!!

Respectfully submitted,

Casey Raymond Perkins
