SC ADMIN LAW COURT

Dear Clerk's Office, Administrative Law Court,
Please kindly note that prior to filing the notice of appeal in the above-entitled case, I was under the impression that I was to file the notice of Appeal from the Administrative Law Court decision to the S.C. Court of Appeals. I did so and was instructed that I was to submit a $100.00 filing fee. Your letter indicated that I have filed 0 appeals, so I was not required to submit a filing fee unless I filed more than 3 administrative appeals during a calendar year.

According to Al-Shinbazz v. State, 527 S.E.2d 742, # 755 (S.C. 2000) the Court states that for me to obtain judicial review of the ALJ's final decision, "a petition by an aggrieved party must be filed with the Circuit Court and served on the opposing party not more than thirty days after the party receives the final decision and order of the administrative law judge. And that I must file a copy of the Notice of the Appeal from the ALJ's decision with the Clerk of the ALJ Division.

Please note that this was not in the information that I received from your office.

Please note that I'm not an attorney nor do I understand the law as it is written. However, what I do know now is that I filed my notice of Appeal in the wrong Court, and I don't have to pay a $100.00 Filing fee.

Please, under these circumstances, I request for an additional 30 days to re-file my notice of Appeal, and for direction on where I need to file my Original notice of Appeal, what Court? what Circuit Court shall I file my Notice of Appeal?

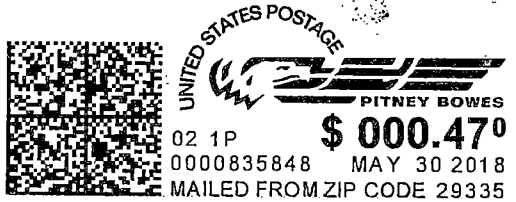

Sincerely & Respectfully,

Darrell Sturkey
