Re: Keviuntae Hytower v. State
Appellate Case No. 2018-000806

Dear Mr. Hytower:

This responds to your letter dated May 26, 2018.

Although you indicate that you did not provide a copy of the orders under appeal with the notice of appeal, a copy of the final order of dismissal and the conditional order of dismissal were in the case file when the South Carolina Court of Appeals transferred this case to this Court. It is not uncommon for pro se litigants not to provide a copy of the order(s) or judgment(s) to be challenged on appeal, and a copy of the order(s) or judgment(s) is simply obtained by the appellate court from the clerk of the lower court or from the opposing counsel.

As to your request to appoint counsel, no action will be taken on this request since appellate jurisdiction over this case ended with the issuance of the remittitur. Wise v. S.C. Dept. of Corr., 372 S.C. 173, 642 S.E.2d 551 (2007).

Very truly yours,

CLERK
