To Clerk of Courts

On May 29, 2018 I received a letter informing me that the court reporter has not been granted an extension. The courts have not received my initial brief. And most importantly I have not received my transcript on which I have been patiently waiting for. My appointed lawyer Lara M. Caudy is on maternity leave. To my knowledge Taylor D. Gilliam is temporarily my lawyer. It is hard to keep in contact with the courts and my lawyer, due to the unsatisfactory efforts of Broad River Correctional Institution delivering mail to inmates. I am having difficulty getting copies of records according to GA-01.3 Inmate access to the court 12.2, Photo copies, materials and documents created by an inmate will not be copied. It deprives me and it is a deprivation the state supreme court ruling in Hendrick v. South Carolina Dept of Corrections, 385 S.C. 625, 686, SE. 2d 191 (S.C. 2009) (No copy rule held reasonable). To make matters worse on April 15, 2018 a riot happened at the Lee Correctional institution and T...

State has been placed on lock-down (State wide lock-down). Which have made it more difficult to keep in contact with the courts and my lawyer. I am asking the courts for empathy due to the horrible living conditions, unsatisfactory work ethics of the correctional officers, and lack to inform inmates about their mail. I'm asking the courts to please deliver me my transcript, I have been waiting for months now. And I would like to be more informed about my initial brief. Which to my knowledge my lawyer is in charge of filing my initial brief. Nothing is irrelevant, but is relevant to aid this court fairly and justly reach the merits of the issues. Please and Thank you.

Very truly yours,

Brice Coley
