RE: TherL Taylor SCDC, et al, Appellate Case No: 2018-000921
Administrative Law Court Dockets No 18C0032 & 18C0048
SCDC Internal Grievance No RCI-0013-17
Note, same grievance number for both ALC Dockets

May 24, 2018

Dear Ms Kitchings:

On May 23 Appellate received your two page and one page documents, both dated May 21, 2018. Thank you.

Appellate apologizes for not perfecting the Notice of Appeal in the above <sup>referenced</sup> case. Appellate is compelled pro se. Briefly, this case is about when Appellant was attacked by a Mob, that could have been prevented had SCDC and its employees protected Appellant after he reported multiple threats at Ridgeland Institution. The main purpose for appealing SCDC agency decision is to exhaust administrative remedies. If it is unnecessary to appeal, to meet out state exhaustion requirements for purposes of overcoming any alleged defense of failures to exhaust in the civil action, please clarify. Appellant certainly does not want to waste any ones time or cost taxpayers.

On the other hand, if necessary, please accept for corrections the three points you notified Appellant to perfect.

1) Enclosed is Attachment A, the April 30 ALC order Attachment B is the ALC's docketing information. Attachment C is the initial ALC docketing information. This case involves the same grievance no: RI-0013-17, as specified in Attachments A and B.

2) Attachment D is a current Financial Account Court Filing Fee Report certifying Appellant's poverty. As in the lower courts, SCDC pays filing fees according to SC Code §24-27-400 and other applicable laws due to Appellant's indigency, as an inmate. Appellant request this Court honor Appellant's Indigent Status to be heard on appeal.

3) Exhibit E is Proof of Service Clerk Jana Shealy and/or Tonya Kohhn, Director were timely served with the ALC according to 203(b)(6).

truly,

TherL
