The attached letter is a corrected version of the letter mailed to the Court yesterday concerning the hearing transcript in the above case.

The case identification was inadvertently omitted from that letter.

Respondent's counsel will receive this corrected version today.

Appellate Case No: 2018-000332

SC Court of Appeals

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Please accept my apology for failing to notify the Court of receipt of the transcript. I was aware that I was to inform the court in the event of non-receipt of the transcript, but unaware that affirmation of delivery was required, assuming that would come from the court reporter.

I received the transcript on May 31. I mailed it to Mr. Domin the following day, Friday, June 1, by certified mail. At the same time, I informed Mr. Domin's office that the transcript cover sheet was in error (referencing a different case) and that a replacement page had been requested and would be forwarded on receipt.

Ms. Haffenden kindly emailed a corrected title page over the weekend which I forwarded to Mr. Domin's office on the morning of Monday, June 4, with receipt acknowledged by a member of Mr. Domin's staff. USPS tracking confirmed delivery to Mr. Domin's office that same day.

It is my understanding that the due date of the initial brief is thirty days from delivery to Mr. Domin. I would be grateful for a response if that is incorrect.

Kindest regards,

Stephen G. Brock
