APPELLANTS RESPONSE TO RESPONDANTS MOTION TO STRIKE APPELLANTS AMENDED 2nd INITIAL BRIEF

Appellant on April 19-2018 filed a Motion to Amend Appellants Initial Brief. Respondant on April 23-2018 filed a Motion for a extension of time for 30 days to file Respondants Initial Brief, by May 22-2018. Respondant filed his Initial Brief on May 14-2018, not waiting till May-22-2018. On May 14-2018 Appellant filed a 2nd Motion to Amend his Initial Brief with Amended Designation of Matter and corrected Caption, unaware of Respondant filing his Initial Brief. Appellant had previously suffered with a equipment break down and was put in a mentally stressful time period and pleads with the Honorable Court to understand, why Appellants 1st Motion was incorrect with Appellant only asking to Amend Appellants initial Brief only and thus the re-filing of 2nd Motion. Appellant has been subjected to no counsel and has limited legal knowledge and again is asking the Honorable Court to understand Appellants Motion was asking for changes to a conclusive statement. Appellant did not count how many. When Respondant filed the Initial Brief early, Respondant let Appellant realize that Respondant had not clearly understood or grasped the severity of Appellants stated claims. Appellant stated claims against Respondant, in Appellants 2nd Amended Initial Brief, as adequately and clearly as possible.

Respondant has brought forward that Appellant did'nt include Authorities or citations. Appellant has found no correlation to any citations or Authorities relevant to Appellants case and stated claims. Appellant is confident that the Honorable Court, only and final Authority will prevail.

With truth being the Corner stone of Honor. Appellant is trusting in the Honorable Court to allow Appellants 2nd Amended Brief, for a clear understanding of Appellants case. Appellant apologizes to Respondant and is in trust that Respondant and Appellant, with the Honorable Court, can move forward with Appellants case, with a Honorable conclusion.
