Dear Counsel:

Our records reflect that the time for serving and filing the respondent's initial brief and designation of matter has expired. Within ten (10) days of the date of this letter, you must serve and file the respondent's initial brief and designation of matter, along with a motion requesting to serve and file outside of the filing deadlines set by Rule 208 and 209, SCACR, or any brief subsequently filed will not be considered.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy

RE: Ronald J. Ferguson vs. Mill Creek, LP
2018-000142

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I received the enclosed letter indicating that the Respondent missed the filing date for its Initial Brief and Designation of Matters to be Included. I am confused. I previously wrote the Court of Appeals with a copy going to the Appellant indicating that I have never received the Appellant's Brief. To date, I still have not received the Appellant's Brief.

Secondly, I have received numerous letters from your office indicating that the Appellant has failed to make the necessary filings, provide the transcript, his initial brief was not appropriate and failure to provide the Designation of Matters to Be Included in the Record.

It was my understanding that he would have to comply with all these terms and conditions before the Respondent could even file a brief. Without knowing the Designation of Matters to be Included in the Record, I cannot do anything. Without having a copy of his brief I cannot do anything.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Rodney M. Brown
