Re: Ronald J. Ferguson v. Mill Creek, LP (2)
Appellate Case No. 2018-000142

Dear Counsel:

The Court is in receipt of your correspondence dated June 27, 2018, in which you state that you have not received a copy of the appellant's initial brief and designation of matter. Please be advised that this Court received a proof of service from the appellant on May 17, 2018, for the appellant's initial brief, and a proof of service for the appellant's designation of matter on June 13, 2018, stating that a copy of both of these documents was mailed to you at your address located at 210 S. Main Street, Fountain Inn, SC 29644. Therefore, this Court must assume that these documents have been served, and inform you that the time for serving a respondent's initial brief and designation of matter has expired.

Secondly, the appellant has corrected all deficiencies that this Court noted for his initial brief and designation of matter.

Furthermore, any relief that you are seeking from this Court must be filed in the form of a motion, pursuant to Rule 240 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, along with a proof of service and a $25.00 filing fee.

The time for serving and filing the respondent's initial brief and designation of matter has expired. Within ten (10) days of the date of this letter, you must serve and file your respondent's initial brief and designation of matter, along with a motion to serve and file outside of the filing deadlines set by Rule 208 and 209, SCACR, or this Court will proceed without the consideration of a respondent's brief.

For your convenience, all filings in this case can be viewed on our case management system, C-Track Public Access. You can find our case management system on the South Carolina Judicial Department's website:
