To whom it may concern,

I am requesting an appeal and request for an Order of Stay for Emergency Medical reasons, because I was only given 72 hours to Vacate, and 24 of those hours was a Holiday July 4th 2018, which made it difficult to address and comply. Due to my medical illness I need to remain in my home and I need additional time and consideration to address this case, because I was never notified of the court hearings. My illness is very serious and I am wearing a medical device which requires me to remain in my home safely while receiving homecare services and treatments. I appreciate your time and efforts to speak with my family on my behalf to address this emergency situation.

Sincerely,

Christine Smith
