

The State of South Carolina
In The Court of Appeals

Appeal From Administrative Law Court
Administrative Law Judge John D. McLeod

Case: 2012-212336

Billy Lee Lisenby JR, #200293..... Appellant
v.
South Carolina Department of Corrections..... Respondent

Petition For Re-hearing

Petitioner ask that a rehearing be held and the following be reviewed:

1. On July 28th 2012 the South Carolina Court of Appeals sent Appellant a letter giving him (10) days to correct and get his proof of Service in compliance, his Notice of Appeal, and to accompany the order and/or judgment(s) challenged on appeal.
2. Also they required Petitioner to pay the $100.00 filing fee. Petitioner brought everything into compliance within (10) days and filed "A Motion To Proceed In Forma Pauperis." Petitioner never received a letter granting nor denying his request for In Forma Pauperis.
3. Petitioner notified this court of his address change but they have continued to send his mail to Kershaw Corr. Inst. He was transferred on Aug. 2, 2012, he has sent several letters asking the status of his case and the court has fail to respond.
4. He did not receive the Remittitur filed on 12-13-12 until 12-31-12, because it was sent to Kershaw C.I.

By Petitioner never being notified if the In Forma Pauperis was granted nor denied, he did not know he could have proceeded with the case.

For the above reasons he ask that a re-hearing be held, and he be allowed to file his initial brief and designation of matter.

Dated: Jun 1st 2012

Respectfully Submitted,
Billy Lee Lisenby Jr.
