Nathaniel James Winn was sentenced to 20 years incarceration by the Honorable Steven H. John on June 25, 2018, under his guilty plea for the above-referenced charge. Pursuant to Rule 203(d)(1)(B)(iv) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, Appellant contends under this Appeal that the State of South Carolina did not set forth a sufficient factual basis to support his plea agreement in that the elements of the underlying charge were not adequately established and thus did not rise to the judicial standard required. Also, Appellant believes that the Court did not sufficiently articulate all the rights afforded him by the United State Constitution prior to entering the guilty plea in that there was merely a cursory survey of said rights rather than an exhaustive discussion thereof. Accordingly, Appellant appeals his conviction from the sentence imposed thereafter.

Nathaniel James Winn v. State of South Carolina

Appellant has not received a written notice of entry of this Judgment as of June 28, 2018.

Dated this 28th day of June, 2018, in Conway, South Carolina.
