APPEAL FROM HORRY COUNTY

The Honorable Thomas Anthony Russo, Circuit Court Judge

Appellate Case No. 2017-001229

SC Court of Appeals

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA,

RESPONDENT,

v.

DAVID HAROLD CAMPBELL,

APPELLANT.

APPELLANT'S PETITION TO EXTEND STAY AND DEADLINE FOR BRIEFING

On May 9, 2018, this Honorable Court issued its Order giving Appellant until today's date to resolve his request to review the backup recordings from the trial record in the above referenced direct appeal which was stayed by the same Order. While the parties have been working diligently on this matter, Counsel for Appellant did not receive an Order from Judge Russo directing the Court Reporter to provide Counsel copies of the back up recordings until July 3, 2018. See, Attachment. That Order gave the Court Reporter ten (10) days to provide Counsel with the copies. Last Thursday, July 5, 2018, Counsel received an email from the court reporter, Kay Richardson, advising her that the disks had been mailed to her that day. Counsel did not receive that package in today's mail.

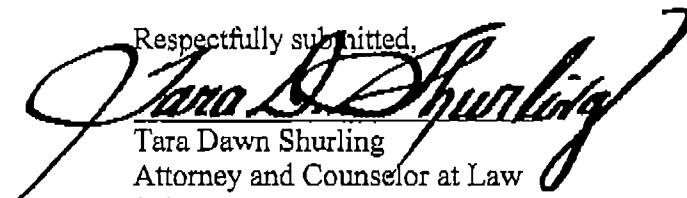

Beginning Thursday afternoon through Friday Counsel will be attending the South Carolina Criminal Defense Lawyers Conference where she is a scheduled speaker. Before she leaves for the conference, Counsel will provide both trial attorneys in this matter copies of these backup recordings, and a copy of the trial transcript, so that they can begin their review of these recordings. Counsel hopes to be able to complete her initial review of these recordings over the first of next week and will then be able to go to Lieber Correctional in Ridgeville, S.C., to review these recordings with Appellant. Unfortunately, Lieber Correctional is currently extremely short-handed and now limits attorney visitation to very restricted hours. Typically, Counsel is able to sign in by 10:00-10:30 am and is required to leave by 1:30 pm. That schedule may not provide Counsel adequate time to review these recordings with Appellant in one sitting. If not, she will either have to return another day to complete the process or, possibly, make arrangements for the Warden's office to allow Appellant to review these audio recordings in either the Chaplain's office or the office of some other administrative employee. Judge Russo's Order expressly authorizes Counsel to do the latter if SCDC agrees to assist Counsel in creating an opportunity for Appellant to finish reviewing these recordings without her being present.

In light of the above, Appellant now asks that the stay in this matter be extended for an additional thirty (30) days in order to provide all parties adequate time to review these recordings. He requests that his time limits for filing his Initial Brief of Appellant be set from the end date of the stay, giving him thirty (30) days from that date to file his Initial Brief. I attempted to discuss this request with opposing counsel, J. Benjamin Alpin, Senior Assistant Deputy Attorney General, however, he is out of the office until July, 19, 2018, and is not available for consultation concerning this matter. For that reason, I would ask that he provide the Court his position in this matter directly.

Respectfully submitted,
