RE: TherL Taylor v SCDC, et al
SC Court of Appeals
Appellate Case No. 2018-00921

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

In receipt of your June 26th letter, I apologize for any delay or deficiency in regard to the Proof of Service dated May 29th, 2018.

As mentioned, the first week of June a medical emergency began, leading to five (5) days of hospitalization through mental health and medical. All my belongings, including legal material were packed up and held in storage until June 27th. I have looked for the extra certificate of service and it is missing along with other sensitive legal material, some pending. I will keep making effort to locate the missing material.

In light of your stern ten (10) day warning and deadline through the holiday, in the meantime, please provide one copy of the May 29th document I filed and proof of service so I may serve Kensey Barrett. It would be appreciated if you could forward Ms. Barrett a copy or allow this document to serve as another request to proceed in forma pauperis in this matter.

Appellate has included another state indigent certification Report, Proof of Service for this document, along with 2 copies hereof and a pre-paid self addressed envelope for convenience.

Please return a clocked in copy.

Your time, cooperation and patience with with me during this crisis is greatly appreciated, Ms. Kitchings. It will not happen again.

cc: Kensey Barrett, Attorney
SCDC

P.S. The 896-1943 phone number Ms. Barrett provided is inaccessible. Very truly yours,
TherL
