Dear Mr. Perry:

This responds to your letter dated July 9, 2018.

First, since I am not your attorney, I do not know why you believe that any correspondence I may send you is confidential.

Second, according to my staff, several of your letters were received in inter-departmental mail, and they were returned in that manner. If you received a letter in a Supreme Court envelope that was unsealed, this was most likely the result of the mailing machine not sealing the letter.

Sincerely,

Daniel E. Shearouse
