Re: The State v. Joshua Glenn Hopkins
Appellate Case No. 2018-001308

Dear Counsel:

Upon reviewing your client's notice of appeal, the following deficiency or deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or this appeal may be dismissed:

- The caption/title does not comply with Rule 267(a), SCACR. Specifically, the caption should read as follows:

The State, Respondent,

v.

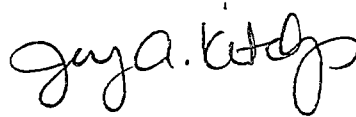

Joshua Glenn Hopkins, Appellant.

- The notice of appeal is not accompanied by a redacted copy of the order(s) and/or sentence sheet(s) challenged on appeal.
- Since this is an appeal from a guilty plea, nolo contendere plea, or plea pursuant to Alford, Rule 203(d)(1)(B)(iv) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules requires "a written explanation showing that there is an issue which can be reviewed on appeal. This explanation should identify the issue(s) to be raised on appeal and the factual basis for the issue(s) including how the issue(s) was raised below and the ruling of the lower court on that issue(s). If an issue was not raised to and ruled on by the lower court, the explanation shall include argument and citation to legal authority showing how this issue can be reviewed on appeal."

- A proof of service has not been provided. You must serve and file a proof of service substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR. The proof of service must show the notice of appeal was timely served on counsel for The State.
- You must provide the sentencing judge's name and the date the sentence was imposed.

Very truly yours,

CLERK
