SC Court of Appeals

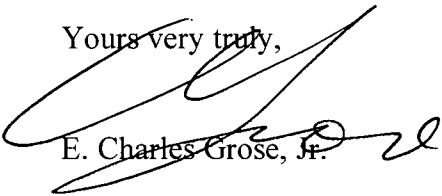

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

By letter dated June 14, 2018, I responded to the Court's letter of June 12, 2018 regarding conflicts with potential oral argument dates in September and October 2018. My response including identifying a potential conflict with September 18, 2018 because of a potential oral argument in Tommy Adams v. State of South Carolina. Enclosed please find my email correspondences of July 11, 2018 with Debbie Hopkins at the Supreme Court. In addition to Adams, I now have a potential conflict in Jones v. S.C. Republican Party. Ms. Hopkins felt certain one of these cases will be set for September 18th.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. Please let me know if you have any questions or require additional information.

With kindest regards, I am

Yours very truly,

E. Charles Grose, Jr.

Mr. Grose,

Thanks for returning my call - I was going to replace the Tommy Adams with the Election case since the Court has expedited it and all final briefs have been filed as of today. I feel certain we will schedule one of these cases on that day if you want to notify the Court of Appeals.

I will be in the office in the morning.

Debbie

I have that day reserved for and argument in Tommy Adams. The Court of Appeals has noticed Sept 18th for a possible argument in State v. Trey Brown, Appellate Case No. 2016-000526. Otherwise I'm free.

Best,
Charles
