Appellate Case No. 2017-001724 & 2017-001725

Dear Mrs. Kitchens,

In your correspondence May, 11th, 2018. You stated that a remittitur was mailed dated April 27th, 2018 why was my request for 59(e) not construed as a request for rehearing as per 221 (a)SCACR when all my motions request that Respondent pay filing fees were construed as requested extension of time motions instead of which they actually were hindrance of access to the courts?. I was and still am under a security lockdown at Lee CI and must insist you take a closer look at my simple request to reinstate my appeal. Without reviewing the facts of correspondence in these cases this court fails to grant proper due process rights protected by the constitution of the United states and the living soul and proves court bias. Thank you

I declare under penalty of perjury that the forgoing is true and correct so help me God.
