ATTORNEYS FOR APPELLANTS

It is respectfully submitted that the Appellants be granted permission to order the transcript upon the following grounds:

1. That a Notice of Appeal was timely filed by the undersigned on July 5, 2018.
2. That on January 16, 2018, the undersigned's wife was admitted to the hospital and diagnosed with acute leukemia.
3. That the undersigned's wife remained hospitalized most of the following six months, was emergently admitted to the ICU in June, and passed away on July 25, 2018.
4. That because of these events the undersigned was out of the office and, instead, at the hospital for the majority of July 2018.
5. Therefore the undersigned was unable to complete the order for the transcript by the deadline set forth in Rule 207(b), SCACR, which expired just 10 days prior to the passing of the undersigned's wife.
6. That by letter dated July 23, 2018, the undersigned received notification from this Court that, although the time for requesting the transcript set forth in Rule 207 had expired, a motion may be filed within 10 days requesting permission to order the transcript outside of the filing deadlines in Rule 207.
7. Accordingly, within the 10 days allowed by this Court, the undersigned herein requests permission to order the transcript outside the filing deadlines in Rule 207 and has attached hereto a copy of the order placed with the court reporter requesting the transcript.

It is therefore respectfully submitted that the Court grant the Appellants' request for permission to order the transcript outside of the filing deadlines in Rule 207.

Respectfully submitted,
