Dear Counsel:

We are working on scheduling oral arguments.

I am writing to see if you have any conflicts for the dates of October 9, 10, or 11, 2018.

We had previously sent a conflict letter for the November 2018 term, but now it appears this case may make the earlier term in October.

Please advise me at your earliest convenience concerning possible conflicts with these dates.

Thank you,

Claire Allen

NOTE FROM PRESTON:

Dear Ms. Allen:

I am available for oral argument any of those three days. I look forward to the argument and hopefully getting this matter resolved as soon as possible.

Sincerely,
Preston

Sorry, I was out of the office on a vacation. I hope you are doing well. I have no conflict on those dates.

Thank you,

Tem

Tem. I have not heard back from you on my previous email sent on Friday, July 27, 2018. Please see the text of that email below and let me know if you have any conflicts.

Thanks,
Claire
