APPELLANT CASE NO. 2018-00778 Court of Appeals

UPDATE ON ORDER TO GET AND ATTORNEY IN 30 DAYS

Comes the appellants Patricia A. Coard-Seabrooks who resides in Atlanta, Georgia and Ransom Coard Jr. who resides in the jurisdiction of the court of Common Pleas, of County of Clarendon and states the following:

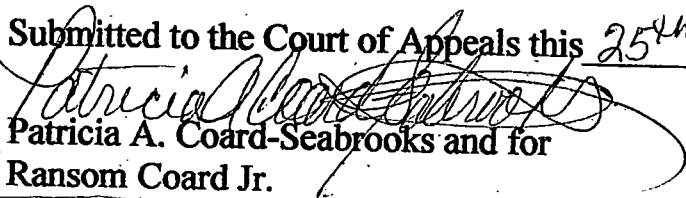

Appellant Ransom Coard Jr. has contacted three separate attorneys to represent the appellants in this matter before the appeals court. Not one attorney is willing to assume the risk for procedures not followed or done, things that should have been done and not done, to pick up an abandonment of clients left in this situation after a mess of the case was made, (one attorney words) not the appellants words.

The appellants are requesting an additional 30 days to continue to look for an attorney which the appellants are continuing to do at this moment and time.

The appellants never expected to be in this situation, after being told by the previous attorney he was representing the appellants in this appeal.

The proof of service to the counsel for the appellee for this request for additional time to locate an attorney.

Submitted to the Court of Appeals this 25th day of July 2018 by,

Patricia A. Coard-Seabrooks and for Ransom Coard Jr.
