

July 15, 2018

On April 16, 2018 I plead guilty to Assault and Battery 1st degree. The judge imposed a sentence of 4 years in the Department of Corrections. It was suspended to 2 years or service followed by 2 years of probation with counseling. The Solicitor stated that they took no position as to I being ordered to register as a sex offender. The Honorable Judge Kinlaw, Jr. then gave his ruling and declined that I be ordered to register. He stated that he believed in second chances and that a person should be able to rehabilitate themselves. The victim objected and reiterated earlier comments. Judge Kinlaw then changed his ruling and ordered I be ordered to register. Mrs. Goode objected at that time. Prior to that day I had been incarcerated at Alvin S Glenn for 458 days. I want to appeal this plea and hope I will be granted this appeal.
