TO: CHIEF JUSTICE

YOU WILL PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that Marqual D. Griffin, proceeding pro se, will move before this Honorable Court for an Order extending the time in which Appellant, Marqual D. Griffin may file an Anders brief in this matter.

The Appellant believes that such an extension is warranted in the discretion of the Court so that the ends of justice may be met. The Appellant received first notice of his letter from this Court during the first week of July, however, this institution received it on June 18, 2018. Furthermore, Broad River C.I. is still on state-wide lockdown and I have been denied total access to the law library to adequately prepare and file an Anders brief. Appellant is unlearned in the law and is confined to his cell 24 hours and 7 days a week. This institution does not send any law cases, legal books, or any legal material for me to research and study the law. Moreover, the Appellant is indigent and is unable to afford paid legal representation.

LEGAL MAIL

The Appellant, therefore, requests an additional twenty-one (21) days past the current deadline of July 30, 2018, and up to and including August 20, 2018, for the filing of Appellant's Anders brief.

Respectfully,
s/ Marquanda Griffin
