Dear Clerk of Court:

The above referenced matter is hereby remitted to the lower court or tribunal. A copy of judgement of this court is enclosed.

Very truly yours,

Jay A. Kitchens
CLERK

Enclosure

cc: Latroy D. Sampson
Alan McCord Wilson, Esquire
Katherine Haggard Hudgins, Esquire
Donald J. Zelenka, Esquire

Mrs (A) Kitchings,

First and foremost I was not trying to duplicate your signature. It was merely a desire to produce an exact replica of the information I received from you. My present position, both physically and financially, doesn't offer the opportunity to have copies made. However the fight to clear my name and reclaim my life makes no allowances for excuse so I do what I must. With that being said I humbly ask for a moment of your time and by extension your consideration.

I'm not well versed in legal terms and

I need, at the least, a layman's understanding of the information in the letter I included with this plea. What exactly does the word "REMITTITUR" mean and how does it apply to me and my situation?

In addition its said referenced matter is remitted to the lower court or tribunal. Could/would you explain that. And last but not least the final line says "A copy of the judgement of this court is enclosed". All I received is the letter I enclosed with this one. Was there something in addition to it that was sent that I should have gotten? Also would you be so kind as to ensure within your powers that I get and if not what was meant by copy of the judgement of this court. I've taken up enough of your, no doubt, limited and valuable time. Please know I'm eternally grateful for it as well as your consideration.

Very Thankful,
Lately D. Simpson
