Ms. Fisher, Attached is an acknowledgment letter along with an invoice for the above-referenced case.

I am no longer with the state, but I am preparing my transcripts. Please note the address to send payment to has changed to Texas. I will begin preparing the transcript once I receive payment and will email the original to you when complete unless you notify me you want a hard copy sent to you.

Regards,

Ruth Weese

In Re: Rickborn v Huckabee, 3-22-18 hearing

Dear Ms. Fisher,

I have received your email requesting a transcript in the above-referenced case. Upon review of my notes I estimate the transcript to be approximately 32 pages long for an estimated cost of $104.00 if you wish the transcript to be e-mailed to you.

If you need a hard copy sent to you, please add $5.00 for postage.

It is necessary that I receive payment before releasing the transcript. Payment made be made in the form of a law firm check, cashier's check or money order made payable to Ruth C. Weese. Upon receipt of the funds I will either mail or email the transcript when completed. If the final transcript invoice is smaller than estimated, I will certainly refund your money. Likewise, if it is larger than my estimation, I will write you to let you know of the balance owed.

By statute, I have 60 days to complete the transcript. The time begins to run after I have received payment. If I get the transcript done before then, I will deliver it to you promptly.

Thank you in advance for your payment, and I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Ruth C. Weese, RDR
