Case #: 2017-001484

Motion to Reconsider
Order and make a
Ruling on Evidence

SC Court of Appeals

The Appellant is compelled to move before the Court regarding the order to resubmit a final brief along with (8) sentencing sheets.

While persons of the court's administration have continued to produce invalid and unlawful orders to maintain dominion over Appellant's freedom, the Respondents have been allowed to obstruct justice at every level in this appeal for relief.

On June 18, 2018, the Respondents unwarrantably seized and detained Appellant at the Kirkland Institution. The Appellant was stripped of all clothing and property for (48) hours. Furthermore, the Respondents proceeded to dispose of Appellant's personal property including documents relevant to this case; Appellant's initial brief was thrown away by the Respondents during this process.

Appellant is now incarcerated in the state of Mississippi due to adverse inference and false pretenses by Respondents; whereas, Appellant has no access to S.C state laws and/or rules of procedures. The Respondents are continuously creating burdens difficult to overcome, and they have committed to using influence to obstruct the justice and relief sought in this appeal. The court must reverse it's order and making a ruling on submitted evidence based on conclusions of law.

Respectfully Submitted
