Re: State vs. Polly McAbee Hindman
Appellate Case No.: 2017-00635

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

In our letter to the Court of Appeals dated June 29, 2018 we advised that we wanted to dismiss the above captioned appeal.

Upon receiving your recent letter we discussed at length your request that the Respondent approves the dismissal and understands the repercussions of the dismissal. The dismissal was initially discussed with Polly Hindman before we wrote our letter dated June 29, 2018.

The Respondent neither says she agrees with the request to dismiss the appeal nor that the appeal should continue. She declares that she is not guilty of the offense of Exploitation of a Vulnerable Adult. While we believe the Respondent, a jury found the Respondent guilty.

Our reasons that led us to request that the appeal be dismissed are:

- 1) The appeal has no merit; and

- 2) Our client does not have the funds (to our knowledge) to pay for printing the brief and the record much less pay for the Respondents attorney fees if awarded by the Court of Appeals.

Mrs. Hindman says that she is going to have the situation reviewed by another attorney and following the review she will advise further.

Sincerely,

Clifford F. Gaddy, Jr.
