Dear Brian,

My role in the Edmond Dillon was that of a legal nurse consultant and not that of a testifying expert. My position is and has been to defer to treating physicians or medical doctors to make the determination of issues concerning causation.

I was contacted by your staff while I was on vacation to set up a time for a deposition. I do not feel that this is something that I was contracted to do. My calendar is very busy the rest of July and do not see a good time until the end of August after school resumes.

My fee for testifying is $250 an hour with a 4 hour minimum, to be paid in full prior to the deposition.

Please share this with the opposing counsel. Again this was not my expectation in this case.

Respectfully

Donna Crider, RN
