Dear Willis

How are you? Hope this letter finds you in good health and spirit. It was brought to the family attention that you may not attend the meeting of which you agreed to have of the month of August, we would like to know for certain that if this meeting still stands or not?

Willis, there are more hand in which is tied into the 110 acres, all heirs need to be present in order to deal with situation at hand. We do not need outsiders to determine our family destiny, let us come together as a family should. If you need to get in contact with the family here is some numbers.

Motion to order transcripts

Plaintiff Carrie Gaston Henderson, moves this Court to grant permission to order late transcripts and says in support thereof that:

- 1) Willis H. Floyd, mortgaged heirs property to Regions Bank Mortgage
- 2) Willis H. Floyd, obtained 56 acres of heirs property for the sum of 85 thousand dollars which was paid as attorney fees to Attorney Brown + Graber law firm.
- 3) The deed that Willis Floyd presented of the 56 acres of heirs property to Regions Bank Mortgage was not a true legal document due to the fact that:
  - a) Upon Willis Floyd receiving the deed to said 56 acres, there was a conflict of interest with Attorney Louise Dore, who prepared the deed for said 56 acres in question.

b) Attorney Louise Dore, formally represented owner/heir of said 56 acres in question, in past proceedings pertaining to the same 56 acres in question prior to Willis H. Floyd receiving the deed to said 56 acres in question.

c) Regions Bank Mortgage did not do a proper research on Willis H. Floyd pertaining to the deed of the 56 acres in question, If said research from Regions Bank would have taken place, then the law suite against Willis H. Floyd vs Carrie Gaston Henderson and Catherine J. Gaston would have appeared as a open court case.

4) Region Bank wrongfully auctioned off heirs property

5) There was an extensive amount of money exchanged between Regions Bank Mortgage and Willis H. Floyd during the auction transaction of the 56 acres known as heirs property.

6) Prior to Willis H. Floyd receiving illegal deed to the 56 acres, there was no back tax or mortgage on the land which is heirs property. Heirs paid property tax.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff moves for permission to order the late transcript(s).

Respectfully submitted,
