Re: Appeal from the S.C. Court of Appeals

Tony Moore v. SC D.P.P.S., Appellant Case No. 2016-000261

Dear Clerk,

I was recently under the impression that my case was forwarded to the S.C. Court of Appeals to the S.C. Supreme Court for review of the denial for relief. I was represented by the law office of Kendrick and Boardman. It would appear that my case was not appealed due to the fact of me not being able to pay for further services from that firm. However, I am still entitled to review by the Court so that I do not waive any issues, in which the Court will rule that I failed to appeal, not my attorney.

I am a inmate who is not trained in the jurisprudence of the law and have never received any judicial review, nor can my attorney waive review on my behalf even if I am not able to pay.

I would like to request that I be allowed a delated appeal of the above stated case No., and my case be forwarded to the S.C. office of indigent defense for briefing.

I thought that my attorney, Joshua Kendrick completed my appeal for Certiorari to the Supreme Court, however, I have not received any indication from him nor the Court that my case has been docketed for review, Or, if the court would assign me and attorney from the local Public Defender's Office for resolution.

Because I am no longer able to retain private counsel should or must not deny me review by the Court because of indigent status.

Respectfully,

Tony Moore #188313
