Dear Mrs./Ms. Jordan,

Please forgive me for once again suspending pleasantries and going directly to the reason for this 2nd letter. In my letter dated July 20, 2018, and pursuant to Rule 207(a)(1), SCACR, I ordered transcripts of the hearing that was held in the Honorable James B. Jackson, Jr.'s Court on January 24, 2018. This was done within ten (10) days after the date of service of the notice of appeal. I have not heard from you within the 5 days as required by the Rule to acknowledge my request. It is now going on three (3) weeks since my initial contact. Since I do not know how transcripts are filed, I recommended looking under Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. v. Dorothy Sistrunk or C.A. Case #2008-CP-38-1024 for January 24, 2018.

I also stated, if you are not the reporter that was in court on the date in question, please direct me to the person that was present. This request still stands and the information is still needed. If you are not the Court Reporter that was in Judge Jackson's Court on January 24, 2018 and do not know who was there or could have been there, please let me know one way or the other. I would certainly appreciate an answer to this request. Thank you in advance for your efforts on my behalf.

Respectfully,

Dorothy Sistrunk
