Re: The State v. Timothy Head
Appellate Case No. 2018-001441

Dear Mr.Head,

Today I received instructions from the South Carolina Court of Appeals to advise you of the reasons I filed the appeal. I am attaching copies of all of the correspondence I received for your clarification, including the letter regarding application of rules and the new caption.

As sent forth in the Notice of Appeal and supporting documentation a copy of which I mailed to you, I do not believe there are any grounds to appeal your guilty plea and sentence, but I filed the appeal because you requested I do so. I maintain the belief that there are no appealable grounds but I am instructed to inform you as follows:

You have twenty (20) days from the date of this letter to inform the Court of Appeals in writing of any arguable basis for your appeal for which there are issues preserved for appeal. Please mail your letter to the following address:
